For Gettysburg Seminary students who want to take a course at Luther Seminary

Luther Seminary and Gettysburg Seminary do not have a cross-registration agreement in place. To apply for a course at Luther, go to http://www.luthersem.edu/admissions/apply_process/default.aspx?m=3226. In addition, email Dr. Stevens to ask for a letter of good standing to be sent to the Luther Admissions department.

Tuition will be paid by the student to Luther according to their tuition rates and policies.

No scholarships from Gettysburg Seminary are available for courses taken at Luther.

Courses taken at Luther Seminary may be considered in Gettysburg's calculation of eligibility for Federal Student Loans and in your loan deferral status. Please contact Susie Kowalski. Your Federal Student loans will continue to be processed at Gettysburg, and are subject to the loan refund policies in place at Gettysburg.

Courses taken at Luther do not count in the calculation of your full-time or part-time status for calculation of Gettysburg tuition rates. To be charged the full-time tuition rate, you must take a minimum of 12 credits at Gettysburg. To be eligible for a full-time scholarship at Gettysburg, you must take a minimum of 12 credits at Gettysburg.

Courses taken at Luther may, in some circumstances, be used to fulfill requirements in your degree program. Permission must be granted by the faculty member responsible for that curriculum requirement. If you have questions about this, contact Dr. Stevens. Luther courses can always be used to fulfill electives.

Academic policies at Luther Seminary regarding drop/add, extensions, etc. will apply.
