

GETTYSBURG
SEMINARY
CROSSROADS CAMPAIGN

Become a partner in Theological Education and a partner in the lifetime of ministry of each Seminary student. Through your support of scholarships we can keep the cost of a Seminary education from being prohibitive to following the call to public ministry.

Cost of attending graduate theological education:

Tuition & fees	$13,050
Books	$ 900
Housing	$ 6,960
Seminarian health insurance	$ 2,500
Food & household supplies	$ 3,500
Transportation	$ 4,950
Misc. personal expenses	$ 4,250
TOTAL	$36,110*

"With the amount of debt I have from my undergraduate studies, it didn't matter that I'd felt called to be here. I almost didn't come because I was afraid I just couldn't afford it. And really, I can't. If it wasn't for the scholarship money available to seminarians, I, and others like me, would have no way to study here. I thank God for the continued opportunity to be here and to serve."

-Stephanie Zinn, Diaconal Ministry Candidate and first recipient of a New Wine Scholarship.

*For a single seminarian living on campus for the 2011-2012 academic year; a Master of Divinity program typically takes 4 years to complete - 3 years on campus, and one year of off-campus internship.

resources

We give away all year long:

For individual study and reflection, or group study every day, 24/7 including "Teach us to pray" resources that introduce and lead a study of prayer, Bible studies, spiritual disciplines including a primer on deepening your Advent and Lenten spiritual discipline. You will find this and more at Gettysburg Seminary's website; go to:

Bearing witness at the crossroads of history and hope, the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg proclaims Jesus Christ to a restless world by preparing students for faithful discipleship. As we listen to God's Word in community, the Holy Spirit empowers us to lead in church and world through worship, education, service and encouragement.
