Seminary
Weekend
2011-2012

*“Seminary Weekend allowed me a chance to connect with others at the same point in their journey.
The hospitality shown by everyone made it feel like home.”*

Come for a weekend of discernment!

Immerse yourself in Gettysburg’s faithful and faith-filled seminary community. Discover how God might be calling you to study at this “cross-roads of history and hope.” Learn all you need to know about attending seminary, including the application process, courses, and financial aid.

The entire weekend is of no cost to you! The Seminary will provide on-site housing, food, and transportation to/from local airports and train stations.

The weekend officially begins Friday at 8:30 AM by attending class and ends on Saturday evening with dinner. All are welcome to arrive early and join us on Thursday night for dinner and fellowship.

If you would like to visit campus, but cannot be with us for a Seminary Weekend, we can schedule a day and/or overnight visit at another time. Contact the Admissions Office to arrange a visit, which will include attending class, chapel and lunch, and one-on-one time with Admissions and Financial Aid staff.
