RECEIVING COMMUNION

“Believing in the real presence of Christ, this church practices eucharistic hospitality. All baptized persons are welcomed to Communion when they are visiting in the congregations of this church.” (from the ELCA’s sacramental practices statement)

We'll be receiving the sacrament around the table today. Come forward by the center aisle (pulpit side first, then lectern side). Remember who the person is just in front of you in – you will wind up standing immediately to that person’s right. There will be two people distributing by a common cup, and one distributing using a pouring chalice – if you would like to receive from an individual glass, please pick one up on the way up into the chancel. Once you have received, continue around the table in a counter-clockwise fashion until you come to the chancel steps, then go down them and return to your seat.

As a sign of the unity the sacrament gives, we all share the same elements. If you are unable to receive wheat bread or wine, be sure that in a single element you receive the Presence and all the gifts of the sacrament.

If you are not prepared to receive the elements today, but would like to come forward for a blessing, bring a copy of the bulletin with you -- that'll be the sign of your intention for the distributors.

NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER’S OFFERINGS

All the offerings from Communion services will be donated to support the Adams County Martin Luther King Celebration, scheduled for January 21, 2013 at the Gettysburg College Chapel. Contributions to this celebration also support scholarships for at-risk Adams County youth to pursue post-secondary education.
