Expanding Horizons for America’s Lutherans:
The Story of Abdel Ross Wentz

By Frederick K. Wentz
Professor of Church History at Lutheran Theological Southern and Gettysburg Seminaries, former President of Hamma School of Theology

Seminary Ridge Press is pleased to present the story of one of the most important Lutheran institution builders of the 20th century, Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, who authored the constitutive documents of the Lutheran World Federation and the World Council of Churches, who expanded and modernized American Lutherans’ oldest and most historic seminary, and connected American Lutherans to an emerging global Christian community.

“Abdel Ross Wentz set the terms for our generation” of historians.
— Martin Marty

“Abdel Ross Wentz wrote history and taught ministry in context – knowing the world in which the mission of God is at work. This concept influenced and guided the doing of mission in the Lutheran Church in the last half of the 20th century.”
— Kenneth C. Senft
ORDER FORM

Name: _______________________________________________________________________________
Address: ______________________________________ City, State, Zip: _________________________
Phone: _________________________________ E-mail: _________________________________

Book order (retail value $19.95 — introductory price $15)

ISBN  978-0-615-16564-6

Expanding Horizons for America’s Lutherans: The Story of Abdel Ross Wentz
by Frederick K. Wentz

Quantity           __________

Tax, shipping and handling  ($5 per book)    $ __________

Total         $ __________

Make checks payable to LTSG Bookstore

Credit Card Payment:

Visa □       MasterCard □       Discover □

Name on card: __________________________________________________________________________

Credit card #: _____________________________     Exp date: ________________

Signature: _____________________________________________________________________________

Also available at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg Bookstore, 717-338-3005 or online at www.Ltsg.edu/seminaryridgepress/